Foreword

Only two centuries ago, Norfolk and Portsmouth were two sleepy port towns just beginning to feel the winds of dissent foreshadowing the Revolutionary War. Although the colonial capital of Williamsburg was flourishing in a life of splendor, men of thought and action were "chafing at the bit" because of Great Britain's unfair treatment of the colonies. Men of ideals envisioned an independent nation, separate from the mother country. Less than twenty years later we were free, marching toward our destiny—of becoming the greatest nation on earth.

The land on which Frederick stands, once trod upon by British red-coats, has grown from World War 2 "prefab" housing for military dependents and a succession of other uses until today it is our home for nine months of the year. More than that, it is an experience we shall not easily forget. Frederick began as a dream, and in eight short years it has grown to be the modern progressive school we know today.

We who attend Frederick are members of a unique fraternity and share a common legacy and goal. No year passes easily or uneventfully; and all of us have felt at one time or another the frustration of restriction, the pain of marching demerits, and even the horror of the day report cards reach home ahead of us. We've also known the nights we were A.W.O.B., the weekend of the Military Ball, and Sunday afternoons on campus. We, the 1966 Cannon staff, have attempted to convey in these pages the feeling of these 262 days of the past year at Frederick.

Conscious of our heritage from the past as well as our hope for the future, here is Frederick.

Here rests in honored glory General of the Army, Douglas MacArthur. The interior of Norfolk's century-old courthouse building was entirely refurbished for its transformation into the memorial. As a Virginian himself, whose parents were married in Norfolk, and whose mother came from a long line of Virginians, the General was honored that Norfolk, his "home by choice," should build a memorial to his name. America's most decorated officer, General MacArthur's awards ranged from the Congressional Medal of Honor to the Philippine's Medal of Valor, the French Croix de Guerre and Great Britain's Knight Grand Cross of Bath. This man, perhaps more than any other, exemplifies the Frederick ideal of Knowledge, Truth, and Valor.

Norfolk's new Kirn Library.

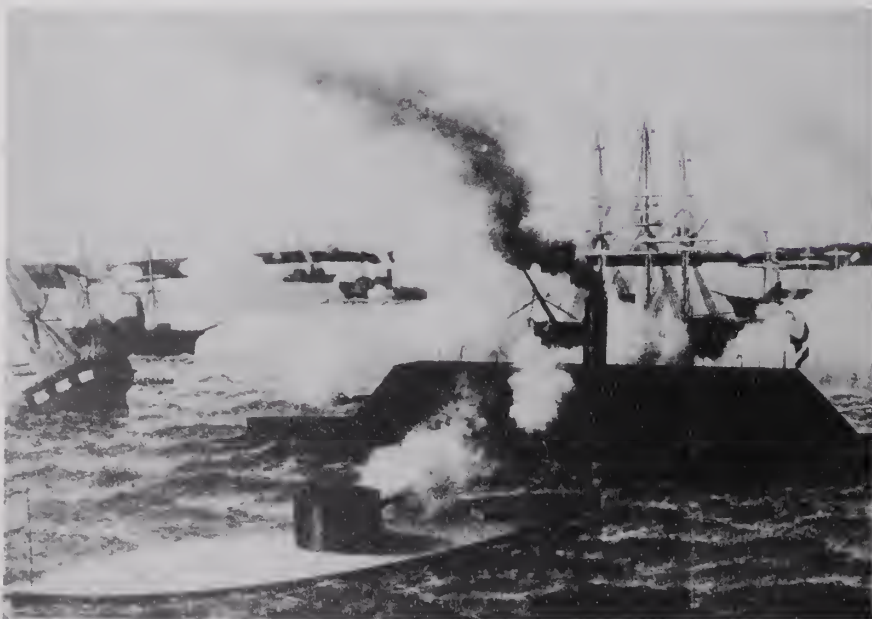

The tidewater area is one of the most progressive sections in the country and can well boast of its accomplishments in the areas of urban renewal and of its wide variety of cultural and recreational facilities. The urban area has lifted itself out of the stagnation of the past and is on its way to becoming the great metropolis it has always been destined to be.

Twilight view of downtown Norfolk and Portsmouth.

This monument on downtown Court Street was raised to commemorate Portsmouth's Civil War dead. Just behind it can be seen the historic old Court House.

On Sunday morning, March 9, 1862, the squat U.S.S. Monitor engaged the C.S.S. Virginia (formerly the Merri-mack), in battle in Hampton Roads. The Virginia had been converted to an ironclad at Gosport Navy Yard, now Norfolk Naval Shipyard, Portsmouth.

Trinity Episcopal Church on High Street is on land donated by William Crawford, Founder of Portsmouth. Its graveyard contains the graves of many revolutionary war figures.

View looking across the Elizabeth River. At left, Fort Norfolk; at right, Portsmouth Naval Hospital. During the revolution, a chain was drawn between these two points to keep British men o' war from entering the harbor and shelling the two cities.

Frederick is the fulfillment of a dream begun eighteen years ago in the mind of Mr. Fred W. Beazley. The school actually began to function in 1958 as a combined junior college and high school and in 1961 it changed to a military academy exclusively. Frederick has come far in the eight years since its beginning and today means many things to many people. Those of us who have been fortunate enough to complete high school here look upon it as school, home, tyrant, taskmaster, "funland," and many more things. On the following pages are a few highlights of our life at Frederick.

Administration and Judge I'Anson survey the Seniors they are turning loose on the world, at Graduation May 29, 1965.

Football games are the most exciting events of the year. Frederick hosts Columbia Prep. Again we tromped 'em, this time 13-0. The season's results: eight won, two lost.

Dedication

Floyd H. West, Major, AUS (Retired), joined the staff of Frederick Military Academy in 1960 and served as Associate Professor of Military Science for four years. For the past two years, he has served in the position of Commandant of Cadets with the school rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Col. West brought to F.M.A. thirty years of active service during which time he held many varied positions of command. He served with the 5th U. S. Army during World War II in North Africa and Italy, including the Anzio Campaign where he was awarded the Bronze Star for Gallantry in Action.

Last Will

Being of Sound Body and Mind, I

"Duck" Allen leave all my wise quacks to the Maj. and all my tail feathers to the Col. to rest his weary bones.

Waverly Alley leave my famous suitcase and laundry bag to Paul McCoy.

Private Berlin leave to "Unkie" one copy of my best selling novel, Don't Trust Your Relatives.

Eddie Blasche leave to any Junior my ability to not wear any brass for 72 days and not get caught.

LaRue "Yogi" Boyce leave F.M.A. after 4 years my record for being A.W.O.L., getting busted, and ordering beer over the guard-shack phone to anyone who wishes to catch Hell.

Brock Man leave the weekend of March 11-13 to Jeff Carpenter, and the keys to the —mobile to Maud.

Tom Tom leave to anyone that can use them, one well worn pair of No Demerit tabs.

Jimmie Dicksey leave Capt. Ruiz the book entitled How to Improve Your Bull-shooting.

Earle Eagan leave F.M.A. with hopes of never returning.

Joseph A. Elliot leave F.M.A. a laundry bag and one ole holey sock.

Lloyd Emory leave to Col. Plaine and Col. West my respects and warmest thanks for helping me through the various difficult times.

Jim Gettings leave to Col. Plaine his sand-box full of .22 shells and cigarette butts.

Danny Hand finally leave with hopes that F.M.A. will someday become a world renowned, plush, pre-fabricated co-ed school with penthouse dorms.

Brian Hetzel leave to John Small what he never received on his birthday. I'll mail it to you wrapped real pretty, John.

Jack Higgins leave to Capt. Sale one spilled bucket of paint, and to J. W. Huskey an "ayr" proof A.W.O.L. bag.

Frank Jacobs, Jr. leave one battlescarred guidon to the returning inhabitants of this cockroach-infested place.

Thomas James leave F.M.A. 1 bar of soap for Pvt. Fitzgerald.

Bryan Janney leave Frederick a joke, like I found it.

Johnny Jennings leave to Capt. Harrison one fully-equipped microphone, less the speaker.

Mike Keenan leave Capt. Ju-kola one used broom to sweep up all the empty coke cans.

Gary Kinnach leave to F.M.A. my lifetime membership to the Mickey Mouse Club.

Sonny Lau leave F.M.A. the same way I came, Speechless.

Stan Lubin leave the Jr. & Sr. Class, and Rockers treasuries to an aspiring young Jewish Freshman.

Paul McCoy leave the Military Department one "personalized" guidon.

Maud leave my ability to drive the —mobile on the weekend of March 11-13 to Steve Brockman and his cohorts.

Ronnie Miles leave the dust and mud of the Drill Field.

and Testament

"Frenchy" Monteran leave my great room-mates Allen, Fitzgerald and Hamilton.

Mike Moore leave to Capt. Garrett my original quotation and to NWH some spoiled cheese.

Tom Myers leave four years of my life behind.

Richard Neal leave to Capt. Sale his mother, who would not let him come out and play with me.

Dennis O'Toole leave my position in "Tom-Tom's" Color Guard to Cadet James Obadiah Nunley Fitzgerald, IV.

Jimmy Parnell leave Frederick for Viet Nam.

George Ragan leave F.M.A. the absence of a military genius.

Sonny Riggs leave to those poor unfortunate souls coming back next year, my comb and Mac's clippers.

G. T. Robinson leave to Col. Plaine one "B" jacket (without stripes) and an empty laundry bag to Mr. Wright.

Rutty Rowe leave to Col. Plaine my great military attitude.

Fred Sawyer leave a book entitled, 1001 Ways to Obtain Leave, . . . Revised.

Harvey Shealey leave to Col. Plaine one dirty, greasy, grimy, oily, crusty, rifle for some poor soul next year.

Chris Sherard leave Mr. Doerr one "Darling Dottie Nurse Kit" with matching apron and gloves and easy to follow instructions.

John Small leave the F.M.A. Woman's Central Intelligence Association to the next fellow who falls into my place.

Les Smith leave to Maj. Reichenbacher my ability to be military, and my Mickey Mouse ears to Col. Plaine.

Scott Smith leave Lt. Carl Colonna a degree in "B.S."

Ronnie Spivey leave Maj. Gelbach "PAW"! I found him in the White House. "HAW, HAW, HAW"!

Guy A. Standing LEAVE!!!

My best wishes for future success and happiness to Mac. He'll need it!

Charley Tebbs leave Capt. Sale one volume of Das Kapital.

Bill Tenbusch leave to next year's secretary of the Athletic Dept. the keys to Maj. Davis' car.

Del Tolan do not leave anything to anybody.

Bill Towne leave next year's Chow Hall N.C.O. Mrs. Conway, all those dirty dishes, and the keys to the Ptomaine Tavern.

Eddy Triplett leave to Col. West the keys to the old Ford, and to Col. Plaine an old raggedy Sam Brown.

Tom Wilkinson leave to "Dew Drop" Evans some leadership, so his hall won't overrun him.

Tony Williamson leave to Rick Williams and Tim Marshall anything at F.M.A. their little hearts desire.

Ronnie Isbel do not leave, yet.

David Martin did not submit a LAST WILL and therefore is assumed to be immortal.

MY JOURNALS

Colonel Plaine sits on "his chair" as he coaches one of the rifle teams. Possessing a critical eye and ready for the slightest infraction of range fire-safety, Col. knows his job and does it well.

Major Reichenbacher drills those cadets unfortunate enough to be marching demerits, this time, in platoon formation with rifles. Major is unequalled in his ability as a drill instructor, as any cadet who's been under his command knows.

Military IV Takes Gettysburg

Did Mrs. Conway really start like this?

The beat's in the brig.

The Military IV Class saw their chance and took appropriate action.

Lube! You gotta be kiddin'!

Our Colonel

O' Colonel, Our Colonel, our prolonged task is done
Four Years we've spent at F.M.A.

In trouble every one!
The Byule calls, at six-fifteen, formations, snow or rain
We've marched demerits, been chewed out
That Is how you earned your fame.

But Colonel, O' Colonel, please stop and hear us out
For May is here, the twenty-ninth,
Our day to jump and shout!

O' Colonel, our Colonel, remember our first year?
Just freshmen knowing naught,
All officers we feared.

Those water fights late in the night, inspections Saturday,
Those intramurals in the rain—builds character they'd say!
Here Colonel, Our Colonel! that was so long ago
You must admit, now, we were bad,
For then you told us so.

O' Colonel, Our Colonel, recall our second year
Most of us back as sophomores, now,
"We're experts now" we sneered!

A new gym built, a football field, Plaine Lake overflowed,
Attacks by seagulls on the corps, that was so long ago!

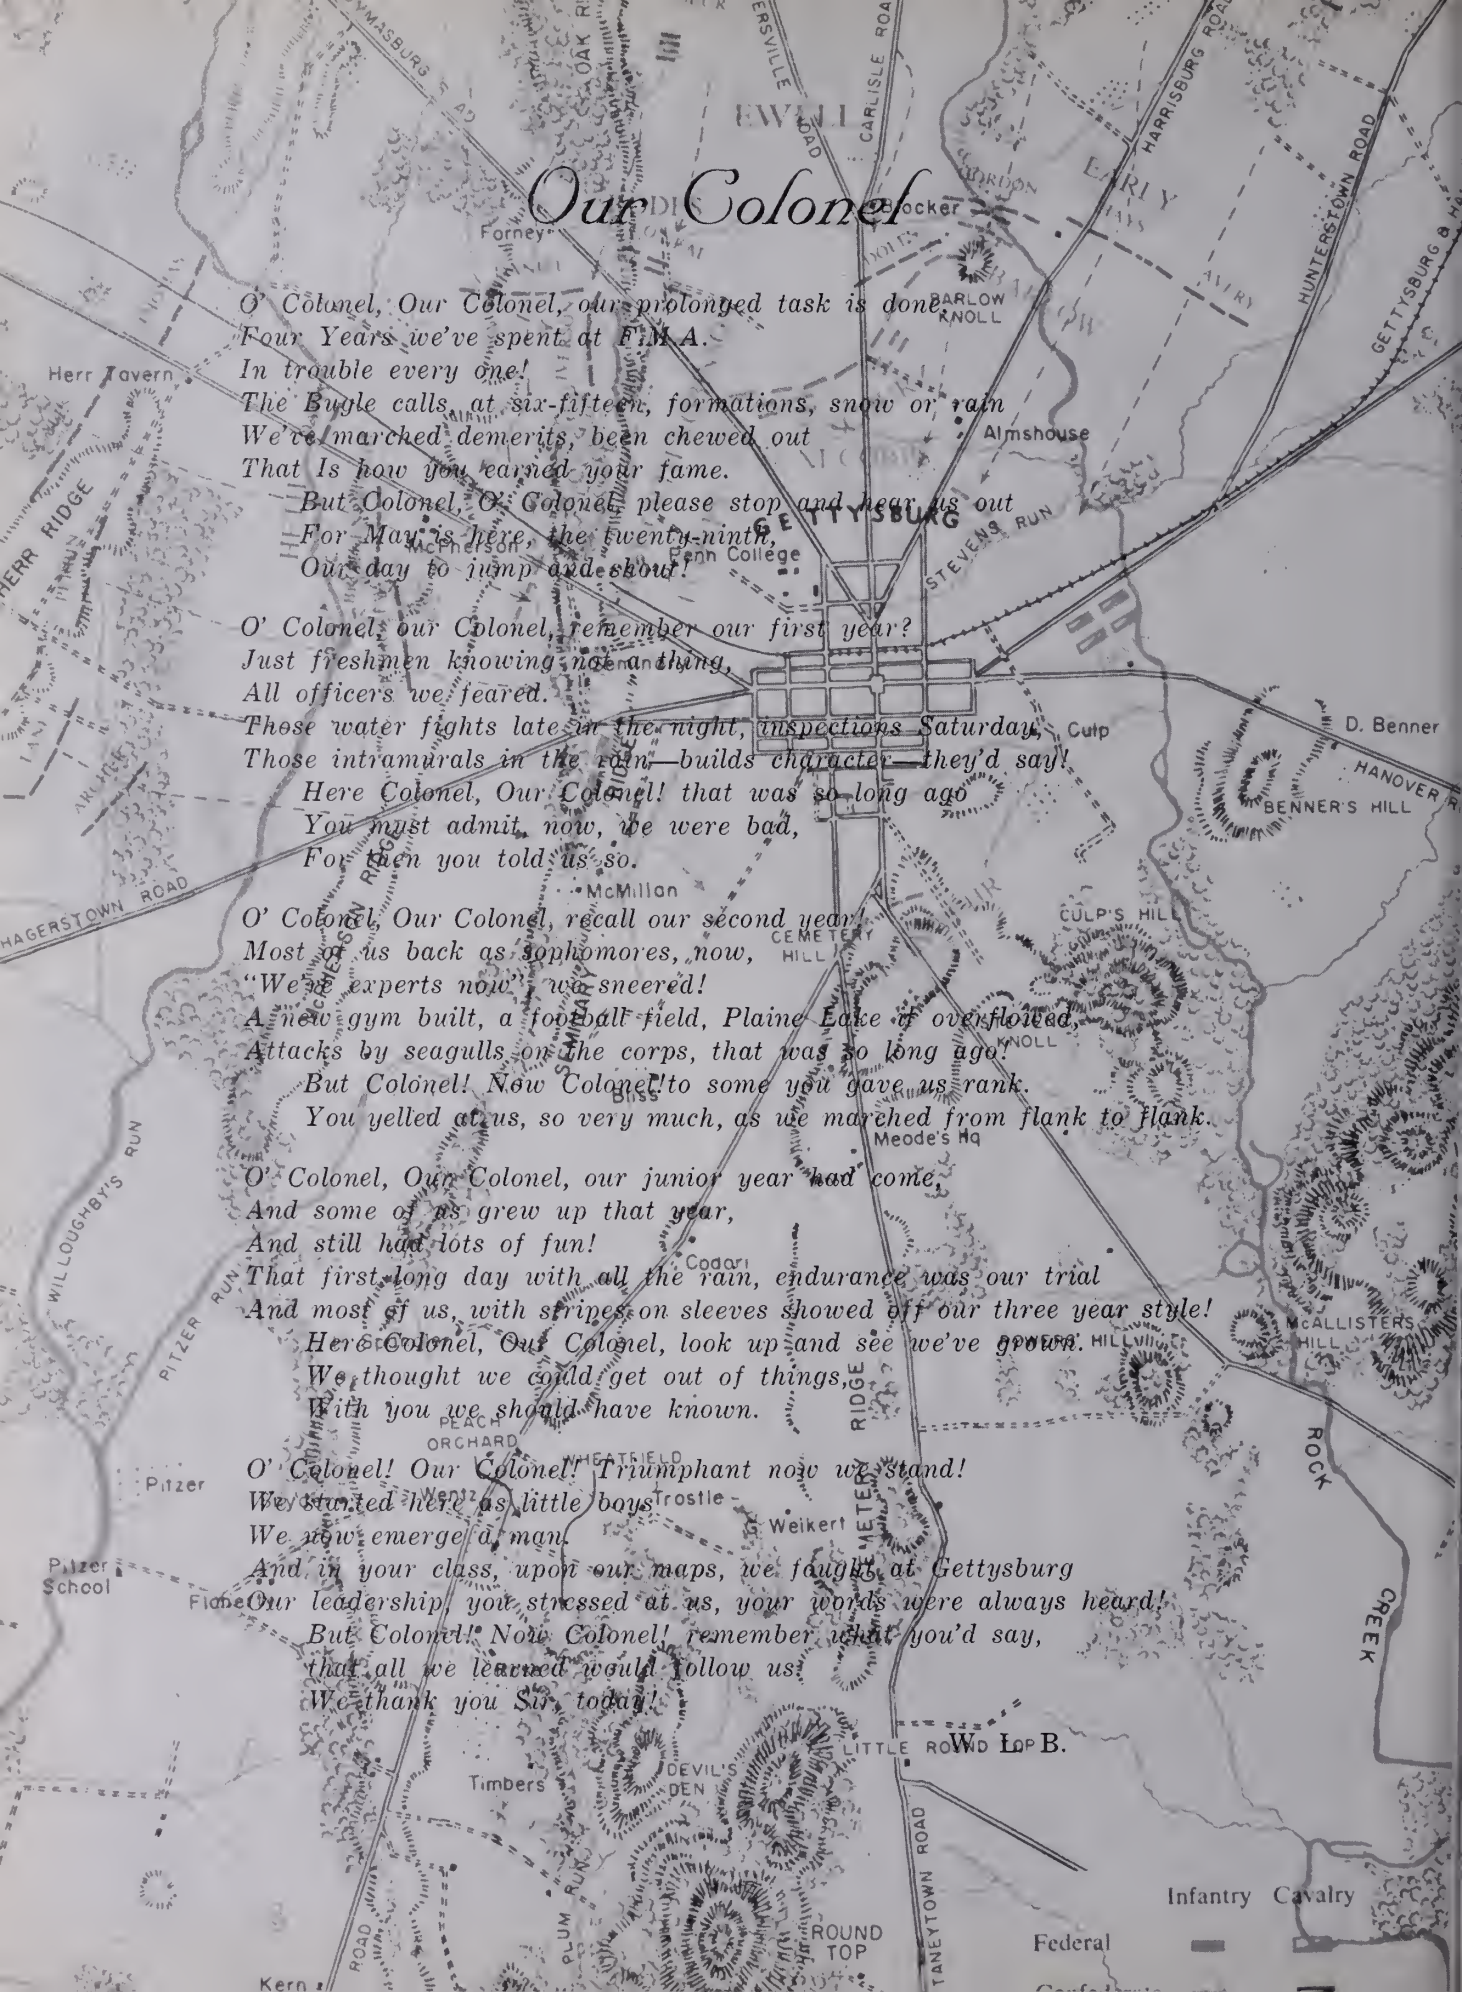

But Colonel! Now Colonel! to some you gave us rank.
You yelled at us, so very much, as we marched from flank to flank.

O' Colonel, Our Colonel, our junior year had come,
And some of us grew up that year,
And still had lots of fun!
That first long day with all the rain, endurance was our trial
And most of us, with stripes on sleeves showed off our three year style!
Here Colonel, Our Colonel, look up and see we've grown.
We thought we could get out of things,
With you we should have known.

O' Colonel! Our Colonel! Triumphant now we stand!
We started here as little boys
We now emerge a man.

And in your class, upon our maps, we fought at Gettysburg
Our leadership, you stressed at us, your words were always heard!

But Colonel! Now Colonel! remember what you'd say, that all we learned would follow us.
We thank you Sir, today!

The Annual Staff At Work?

Sept. 1966: "Help"!!

Bill Hash and staff in midst of busy picture taking session.

Brockman's reaction upon realizing that annual is 4½ months and 157 pages behind.

Lascivious picture? You bet! I'm keeping it for myself!

Maj. Clarence P. Mooring, Sponsor

Maj. Mooring has been a great help this year to the Annual Staff and has put up with all our un-met deadlines and hare-brained ideas. He has been our link with the administration and faculty and has served us well in this capacity. The "Maj." has been responsible for popcorn, pizza, coffee, cokes, apple turnovers, and in general, all the refreshments consumed by the starving annual staff.

Acknowledgements

It is impossible to give credit to everyone who has participated in the making of this yearbook. There are a few people though, whom I would like to thank, for they did more than their share in helping to bring this book to the student body. Jeff Carpenter gave unstintingly of his time and energy and proved an unusually capable Assistant Editor, ready to continue when it seemed that we would have to start all over again. Vic Mauldin was unequalled in his work and loyalty to the staff, managing to squeeze in a job with the Drama Club between work on the annual and still do more than his share. Thanks to Woodie Gay for a job well done as artist, to photographers Gary Kimnach (chief bouncer) and Mike Moore. Extra thanks go to Ronnie Isbel and Guy Standin who worked over time to make it possible to finish the yearbook on schedule.

Col. West, Col. Plaine, and Col. Inscoe deserve our gratitude for putting up with us and for special exemptions without which we would not have been able to complete our work. I need hardly mention Maj. Mooring, who was more than helpful as Sponsor and backed us up when the going got rough.

I wish also to thank: Mrs. Glynn, Mrs. West, Mrs. Beaver, and especially Mrs. Outland who helped greatly; Bill Hash our chief photographer and Delmar representative and advisor; Coach Davis, Lt. Colonna, Maj. Gelbach, and Capt. Sale; also Samuel French, Inc. and Dramatists Play Service, Inc. for permission to caption the "Rainmaker" and "Stalag 17" pictures.

Lastly, both the Annual Staff and Col. Inscoe wish to express deepest gratitude to those persons who responded so graciously to our request for additional funds, enabling us to carry out our plans for this, the first edition of the Frederick Military Academy CANNON. Thereby we were able to change our format and cover design. We sincerely hope that all who have turned these pages have been pleased by what they have seen.

To those mentioned above and to anyone else whom I might have forgotten, my sincerest appreciation for helping to make this yearbook a reality.
